Saturday, May 15, has been set as the day for the annual cleanup in the Truckee-Donner community. N. F. Dolley, president of the Truckee-Donner Chamber of Commerce announced that the project will be jointly sponsored by the chamber and the Truckee and Donner Lake Volunteer Fire Departments.

Under this arrangement, the chamber will finance a kick-off breakfast at Smart's Saturday morning and a luncheon to be served by the Fire-ettes at noon at the Truckee fire house. Dolley said that he will also arrange for the equipment to be used in hauling the debris and rubbish from property, but added that the labor for the work must come from volunteers.

No property policing will be undertaken by the firemen or volunteers, Dolley explained, each property owner being required to clean up and pile the refuse near the street or highway and to assist the volunteers in loading.

"The full cooperation of every property owner or renter is going to be required if the program is to be a success," Dolley declared. "We are willing and anxious to make the community clean and attractive but we cannot be responsible for each piece of property."

During the cleanup period and up until May 23, Harry Stout, owner of the Truckee-Donner Disposal Service, has agreed to permit dumping without charge for his customers at the disposal area near Hirschdale.

It is hoped to have the job completed during the one day set aside and this will prove possible only with a united effort, Dolley said.

Careless Campers Blamed For First Five Fires In Area

The fire season has arrived! Personnel of the Truckee District of Tahoe National Forest, had to take action on five wild fires in the Boca-Prosser area this past weekend, according to District Ranger Dave Mohla.

All five fires were apparently the result of warming fires built in the early morning and left unattended or not thoroughly extinguished. Winds reaching 30 miles per hour in the late morning and early afternoon fanned these unattended fires carrying sparks into adjacent dry grass and brush.

Fortunately, all the fires were controlled at a small size. The largest was approximately five acres.

Alley Gets Cleanup As District Crews Complete Project

Following the installation of new water mains in the alley back of the main business district in Truckee last fall, winter snows and rain storms made it impossible to complete restoration of the area. This work has now been completed, and the area has been filled and leveled in good shape.

In addition to the work done, the Truckee Public Utility District has used equipment and crews to clean up the alley from Spring Street to Bridge Street, hauling away over 100 cans of trash and garbage, and many pieces of old and discarded lumber and broken machinery.

This is the first time in many years when this commercial alley has been in such good condition, and Francis Longo, manager of the district, and the members of the board of directors ask that the citizens of the town, and particularly the merchants and residents bordering on the street make an effort to keep up the good work.

Action Delayed On Formation Of Park District In County

The Nevada County Board of Supervisors Monday continued until May 18 further action on an ordinance designed to create a county recreation commission, a move vigorously opposed by the Truckee-Donner Park and Recreation Commission and others, who fear that double taxation will result.

There seems little likelihood that the county project will be abandoned because of local protests, but the extension was given to permit a study by the Truckee-Donner commission on what can be expected when the county district is formed.

Supervisor H. G. Loehr, who is opposing the county district, said that action probably will be taken at the May 18 session to form the commission, as all other members of the board apparently favor it, so that the county can participate in state allocations of funds.

Dr. H. P. Tapia, president of the Truckee-Donner Commission, appeared before the board Monday in protest. He indicated the local commission will seek immediate information to determine whether the local entity will participate in state allocations or whether local funds will be made available after the county district is formed.

While the county commission will be established as an advisory group only, recommendations may be made to the supervisors which will require finances and the supervisors may impose a tax to provide the finance. Whether or not the local district will be immune from this tax because of the present local tax, is a moot question.

Right Attitude Is Important Need In Training Of Youth

"If Americans are to keep pace with today's fast-changing world, it must be done by personal effort rather than depending on government committee and study groups," Duane McDowell, program director of the National Association of Manufacturers in a luncheon address Friday before the district Lions Club convention at Squaw Valley.

In a rapid fire summary of how computer-living is changing the environment, McDowell pointed out that this is resulting in a swiftly increasing problem of national employment.

"We must meet these unemployment problems by training our young people in the right work skills and especially in the right work attitudes," he said.

The training can best be accomplished by improving the home environment with young children. It is a sad commentary on our way of life," McDowell said, "when we have to have grand juries investigating juvenile delinquency instead of having the parents point the way."

With an appeal for personal action, McDowell added that the formula for Americans to successfully take charge of their changing world is to begin first with themselves and their families at home. When that job is successful our entire environment can't help but change for the better.

Telephone Men Are Honored At Dinner

A group of hard outdoor men—engaged in insuring year-round telephone service to thousands of Pacific Telephone subscribers in the rugged Lake Tahoe-Truckee region—was honored last week for a perfect on-the-job safety record during 1964.

The men, all Pacific Telephone construction men, are from the Al Tahoe, Bijou, Tahoe Valley, Tahoe City area.

Headed by Pacific Telephone Senior Engineer Paul J. Zazzi of Al Tahoe, in charge of construction and engineering operations for the company in the Tahoe-Truckee area, the men were awarded a trophy for their year-long accident-free performance by E. V. "Woody" Woodrell, the firm's northern division plant manager.

Woodrell praised them for their "excellent" showing.

He challenged the men to continue to be attentive to the importance of good safety practices both on and off the job, especially in these mountains with their hazards of snow, ice, wind and rugged terrain.

"Safety, as we see it in the Bell System," he said, "is a personal responsibility we owe ourselves, our co-workers and our families."

Asked why his men were able to achieve the perfect safety performance, Zazzi said, "we have safety meetings often. We observe and correct the men on safety practices. This emphasis on safety helps make them alert to its importance... safety conscious," he explained.

Zazzi said the toughest assignment his men had during 1964 was placing control facilities for an intercommunications system tying Squaw Valley's tram and chairlifts with the main lodge.

Zazzi commended Bijou construction foreman, Bud Clay and members of his crew for going nearly four years without an accident. Others responsible for the 1964 safety record who attended the luncheon are Bill Posten, engineer, Tahoe Valley; Don Walker, lineman, Tahoe City; Dave Mikelson, splicer, Tahoe Valley; Francis Porath, splicer, Bijou, and Bob Whitehouse, splicer, Tahoe Valley.

Fire Control Men In Meeting At Tahoe

Approximately 100 federal, state and local agency fire control personnel from central California and western Nevada, who are responsible for forest and wildland protection, are attending a conference at the University of California Alumni Association center near Tahoe City on May 5, 6 and 7.

These annual meetings, held prior to the fire season foster better cooperation and understanding of mutual problems that are encountered by the agencies attending the conference.

Stephen M. Rushton, district ranger of the Minden ranger district, Toiyabe National Forest, and general chairman of the 165 conference, stated that the program is devoted primarily to fire prevention research, fire control and the Youth Conservation Corps. The California conservation camp program and its role in disaster activities also is being discussed.

Galens At Nevada Lodge Until May 16

CRYSTAL BAY—Now in their last week on the Topaz Room stage of North Lake Tahoe's Nevada Lodge is the smash-hit Galens Quartet.

With a Billboard magazine "Top 100" recording—"Baby, I Do Love You"—under their collective belts, the four bright young talents have established themselves as a fast-rising, solid entertainment team. With their crowd-pleasing show at North Lake Tahoe's Nevada Lodge they've gone a long way toward proving themselves tops "in-person" show-biz veterans.

The Galens comprise three young talented musicians and a vivacious brunette songstress and dancer, Charlene Knight. The exciting group has been featured with such headliners as Liberace, Marlene Dietrich, Milton Berle and Judy Garland. The aggregation's swinging and singing ranges from the old, old oldies through the songs of "only yesterday" to modern twist tunes.

Whether it's a nostalgic ballad, a sure-fire hit show-tune or an upbeat "pop" number that moves you—the Galens "new sound" is guaranteed to strike just the right chord of pleasure among North Tahoe show-goers.

Always a crowd-pleasing set of performers, the Galens with Charlene Knight will hold forth at North Lake Tahoe's fun-center, Nevada Lodge, until May 16.

Biology Class Open By Sierra College

This summer, for the first time, Sierra College will offer a course in field biology which will include a week at a Sierra mountain lake and a week at the ocean side. The three unit, two and one-half week course will be taught by Dr. Ray Underhill.

The biology field study will meet requirements for college freshman and should be helpful for teachers and future teachers.

Dr. Underhill and college Vice President Marion Akers were enthusiastic about the possibilities of an enriched course which will also be open for zoology 22 students planning individual research projects with Dr. Underhill.

Three days of on-campus lecture June 16-18 will introduce the subject of cellular biology.

Tahoe Properties Are Given Approval

AUBURN—The Placer Planning Commission last week approved Tahoe Tavern Properties' 37-unit development on the condition there be no filling of Lake Tahoe.

A revised plan submitted by the developers excluded a 100 unit peninsula which earlier had been proposed for construction into the lake from the site of the old Tahoe Tavern.

The Placer Board of Supervisors had directed the planning commission to forbid any filling of the lake.

Betty of KOLO-TV's "Be My Guest" says "Be My Guest" at the Women's Club of North Tahoe fifth annual fashion show. The show will be held on July 7, Wednesday noon at the North Shore Club according to chairman Inez Jordan. Eleanor Egan, president, anticipates an outstanding show this year since four shops from Reno will be showing their fashions. The North Shore Club, which has been the scene of the four previous shows, will once again accommodate the Women's Club and their guests. Favors will be given guests and Betty has a surprise intermission show. Other committees and details for the show will be announced later according to Inez. Proceeds from the show will benefit the Incline Village and Kings Beach schools again this year, donation to the show will be $5.00. Make reservations early this year as the Women's Club expects a capacity attendance to their biggest social function of the year. Herman and Ruth Johnson of Kings Beach had a "meandering" tour during their vacation which they immensely enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Furlong had as weekend guests at their Incline Village home Dr. and Mrs. Corwin Hinshaw of Belvedere and Dr. and Mrs. Al Henry Garland of San Francisco. Note Cal-Neva Lodge opening on June 18 with promise of "big league" entertainment. Gene and Pearl Sigg of Reno visited friends on the North Shore Thursday. The Siggs are former residents of Kings Beach. Vicki Jones of Carnelian Bay was presented with an award from Sports Illustrated magazine at a meeting in Reno of the Sierra Nevada Sportswriters and Broadcasters at the Riverside Hotel last week. Vicki was cited in Sports Illustrated's "Face in the Crowd" section. The award was presented the outstanding junior skier by Duane Borovec, president of the Sierra Nevada Sportswriters and Broadcasters. Congratulations Vicki.

She has been offered a scholarship to do graduate work in speech therapy at the Ohio State University. She was born in Oroville, California. Harvey and Harriet Price and sons, Gary and Mark, of Kings Beach were visitors to Harry and Ceta Hooper and sons, Jon and Charles, on Sunday. Gary and Mark had played in a piano recital that afternoon in Reno. Sorry to hear that Guy Michaels of Mt. Rose's Christmas Tree, and the Chataux at Incline Village has been hospitalized in Reno for surgery. Get well soon, Guy, everyone misses you! The new Christmas Tree is almost completed and has been tentatively scheduled for a June 1 opening. Carl and Mary Dyer of Kings Beach are visiting in San Francisco. Carl was hospitalized in Reno but progressing satisfactorily now. Detect-A-Larm is a new company who exhibited at the Home Show. Its slogan is to make "Reno the Safest Little City in the World." The treasurer and secretary is Florine Trigueiro of Reno who will be remembered by many

UTILITIES REVENUES IN STATE ARE HIGH

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — The California public utilities commission reported gross annual revenues received by for-hire trucks, railroads and water carriers for intra-state transportation of property in California reached $1 billion for the first time during 1964.

Frederick B. Holoboff, commission president, said the total was $1,044,025,774, an increase of $97.4 million from 1963.

Of the total, $931 million, or 89.2 per cent, were revenues from truck operators.

Only about 1 per cent of insects are harmful, but these destroy about 10 per cent of the world's crops annually.

Boating Tips...

LAUNCHING STEPS

Two of the most embarrassing things that can happen to a boater are forgetting to replace the drain plug before launching and forgetting to attach a bow line to the boat before it's pushed off the trailer. The first goof permits water to rush into the boat through the open drain, the second one makes it necessary for you to wade or swim for your drifting boat. Both can be avoided by getting into the habit of following these five launching steps recommended by the Mercury outboards people: first, back the trailer down the ramp, stop a few feet from the water's edge and set the car brakes; second, release all the tie downs, tilt the motor up and connect fuel and electrical lines; third, put in the drain plug; fourth, back the trailer into position for launching; fifth, attach a line to the boat's bow and hold it to prevent the boat from drifting away once it is afloat. Unlock the bow winch and push the boat down the trailer into the water.

DEVELOPMENT PLAN AT LAKE REVEALED

AUBURN—The Placer County Board of Supervisors last week heard details of a plan to develop recreation facilities on 64 acres of federal bureau of reclamation land south of Tahoe City.

Robert Harmon, an attorney representing the United States Plywood Corp., Moana Development and Land of Sierra, a subsidiary of the Sierra Pacific Power Company, indicated the firms plan to spend over $1 million on the project if leasing arrangements can be made.

He said a 50 year lease has already been obtained from the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District, which has custodial interest in the tract.

A public beach, a community center, a museum, a 9-hole golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts and other facilities are proposed.

The project is approved by the Tahoe City Public Utility District, Manager William Layton said.

Party Unity Is Seen For GOP In State

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, chairman of the republican state central committee, has indicated his image of the GOP elephant in California is carrying the olive branch of party unity.

Parkinson, generally considered a moderate republican, said he felt all groups within the party were working together and the fringes on the far right were a reflection of grass roots opinion and should be considered.

Parkinson noted the state assembly's 31-member republican caucus had adopted a code of ethics which carried out this theory. The republicans agreed not to give aid and comfort to the democrats by having one republican attack another potential candidate because of difference of philosophies in the party.

The chairman was asked if he felt the actions of the California republican assembly (approval of the "liberty amendment" to abolish federal income taxes) was on a par with actions of the liberal arm of the other party, the California democratic council (get the U. S. out of Viet Nam).

"It is impossible to equate the positions of the CRA and the CDC," Parkinson said. "But it should be remembered that, in the resolutions of the CRA, there is no question of Americanism or loyalty. On the other hand, the left wing resolutions of the CDC do not consider the threat of communism to the world peace."

Parkinson said he personally had little familiarity with or position on the liberty amendment.

ELEANOR SWANSON GETS GOLD TREATMENT

Elenore Swanson, well known at Tahoe City, wrote good news of her condition from Washoe Medical Center at Reno, describing a new pure gold leaf treatment for her leg injury, instead of the previous prediction of skin grafting.

Swanee's new nickname in the hospital is "Goldie, the girl with the gold legs" and those near her are thinking of posting a Brink's guard near her door because of the costly but successful applications for healing. She also wrote that she has received many kind messages and cards that have definitely buoyed her spirit while confined to bed.

Barrett, Brewer In Change Of Position

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) — Governor Edmund G. Brown has announced a transfer of members between the state youth authority and adult authority.

Douglas Barrett, Sacramento, member of the CYA for the past seven years, will move to the adult authority, and John W. Brewer, San Francisco, member of the adult authority since 1959, will move to the youth authority.

In addition, Mrs. Lee Strubbs Penland, San Francisco, has been reappointed to the youth authority.

Barrett's term on the CYA had expired March 15 and he now will serve the two years remaining in Brewer's term. Brewer will serve a new four-year term on the youth authority. Both men are Democrats.

Barrett was press secretary and departmental secretary to former Governor Goodwin J. Knight, who appointed him to the CYA. He formerly was associated with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Barrett, in publication of the Sierra Sun in Truckee.

Brewer served on a number of committees dealing with delinquency, crime, parole and correctional matters before his appointment to the adult authority. He makes his home in San Rafael.

Mrs. Penland, a Redwood City attorney, has been a member of the CYA since 1960. She also served on a number of committees dealing with justice and crime before her appointment.

"I am inaugurating a policy which I believe will be highly beneficial in the field of corrections in California," Brown said in announcing the appointments. "The important work of these two boards makes it advisable that members be rotated when possible."

DONNER DOINGS

By Vi White

Back again after a long season of skiing and thanks to Marcella for taking over Donner Doings during the winter. Now to get down to a busy summer.

It's sure interesting to see what has survived the deep snow, every day new plants pop through the ground. Right now the daffodils and crocus are at their best.

Jenny Strobel had the distinction of being the first water skier out on Donner Lake this season during the smooth, warm days a couple of weeks ago.

storm and May rode right in on the same wave and as has happened for the third year in a row, it snowed during the opening of the trout season.

Streams were full this year from the spring runoff and higher fishing spots were closed by snow. Out at Boca and Prosser lakes, anglers were catching nice sized fish, but Saturday, the largest mackinaw of this season was caught right here at Donner Lake. A 24-pounder caught by M. Clark of Roseville. The huge fish was on display at Marquette's Donner Shore Resort most of the day while the lucky fisherman was out trying to duplicate his catch. Limits of kokanee were taken all weekend despite the wind and snow.

The Les Hadleys and Jack Marquette were mighty busy at the District 4-N Lions International Convention at Squaw Valley from Thursday to Sunday. The Truckee Club was host for the big affair.

Now that the snow has melted, the boys are out practicing baseball evenings on the diamonds just east of the high school. During school hours, the students are also utilizing the fields at gym time. Sometimes clad only in gym trunks, burr—what a healthy bunch.

The Donner Lake Water Ski Club has already received inquiries about their meets. They have plans for a joint venture with the Reno Club this summer.

Two national water skiers, NI Orsi and Larry Penacho will be performing at Novato May 16. Our son Chuck hopes to arrive in time from his army basic training in Fort Polk, La., to see the exhibition.

The lake level has come up a few feet due to the melting snow even though the gates are still open and Donner creek is full. Understand that shutoff of water won't be until around May 15 so in the meantime, watch out for those rocks that are just below the surface these days.

California is the nation's leading state in diversity of mineral production.

TO ADDRESS CLUB

Norman Vincent Peale, minister, lecturer and author, will address a meeting of the Reno Executives Club at a dinner to be held in the Elks Club at Reno on May 10. Dr. Marcus Waltz will preside at the meeting which will be confined to members only. A large number of Truckee and North Tahoe residents are members of the club.

Welfare Costs High In Nevada County

Welfare payments in Nevada County during the 28 days of February, 1965, reached $154,767 or $5,527 per day according to S. J. Arnold, executive director of California Taxpayers' Association. Among the welfare programs in the county during the month were old age security $85,226, aid to families with dependent children $26,036 and medical assistance to the aged $27,038.

Total welfare expenditures throughout California amounted to $75,591,459 during February 1965. This is an increase of $19,567,045 or 34.9 per cent over the comparable total of $56,024,504 for February 1963.

Board Refuses To Issue Permit For Shortcut Project

TAHOE CITY—The Placer County Planning Commission has turned thumbs down on a proposed industrial park and residential, multiple-dwelling area near Kings Beach on the Brockway shortcut.

The project was proposed by Tom Flanagan and Associates and called for the area to be separated by the highway, the multiple-dwelling residential area on the north and the industrial park on the south.

Fred Barber, director of the planning commission, argued that the applicants had failed to show "public necessity and welfare" demanded the development. He said also that there was "no urgency" for the development which would make it economically feasible.

Flanagan and Don Beck, North Tahoe realtor, charged that the project should be approved, pointing out that the developers, acting upon a request by the planners some time ago had postponed their application so that a similar project by the Denney Logging Company could be submitted. The latter was given the green light and is now underway.

Beck and Flanagan said they were the first to recognize the need for the project and should not be discriminated against. They pointed out that their park, drawn by Ray Smith, complies with the Lake Tahoe Regional Plan.

A tentative map of the Tahoe Properties condominium development was approved and approval was also given a 32-acre, 95-lot development located near the administration building to be known as Tahoe Queen.

TRUCKEE STUDENTS ENROLL IN SIERRA

There are 36 students from the Tahoe Truckee High School enrolled in Sierra College at Loomis, according to Martin Taylor, registrar, in releasing the spring student list.

Sierra College students come from more than half of California's counties and from almost every town and city within the mountain area.

The 16 students from Truckee are Virginia Barnes, Ronald Brown, Karen Carroll, Robert Hobbs, Michael Keene, George Kusick, Delmar McGilhon, Angel Mintegui, John Mintegui, James Moore, Michael Moore, Daven Morey, Ron Silva, Dianne Silverii, Joe Straub and Leonard Watts.

There are nine from Kings Beach: John Adams, Kleth Felte, Terry Gallagher, Sandra Meinzer, Dana Neustadter, Janette Wilson, Gary Wing, Wilson Granat and Kenneth Young.

From Tahoe City: Rickard Bergman, Karen Henry, Gary Jay, William Kehoe, Judy Layton, Susan Moyer, Warner Phillips, Daniel Pomin, Arita Spitsen and Rita Williams.

Harry McIntyre is the Tahoe Vista student.

California crop losses from smog are estimated to be about $132 million annually.

More Money Asked For County Roads In Lunardi's Bill

State Senator Paul J. Lunardi announced that he has introduced legislation that would increase the amount of money apportioned to counties from the highway users fund for snow removal on local roads.

The present apportionment of money payable to counties is $700,000 distributed on a percentage basis computed from snow removal expenditures from the three preceding fiscal years. Senate Bill 1216 would increase this amount to one million dollars.

The senator said that with the rapid growth around winter sports areas, the demand for snow removal operations is rapidly exceeding the financial and physical capabilities of individual counties.

In further illustrating the need for additional funds, Senator Lunardi pointed out that in comparison with the $31,452 the state requires to remove snow from some eight miles of Highway 89 from Squaw Valley to the Nevada County line, Placer County must service 310 miles of road with only approximately $58,000. Nevada and Sierra Counties, as well as other counties of the north, suffer the same problems, he said.

PAY HIKE URGED

AUBURN—The Placer County Board of Supervisors urged the state legislature last week to approve a $1,500 a year pay increase for the office of the Placer County district attorney, effective January 1, 1967. The office, now occupied by Daniel J. Higgins has a current salary pay rate of $15,000 a year.

During the past decade, improvement in longevity has been negligible among older men in the United States.

THE FINEST HOUR IS SLATED AT THEATER

Jack Le Vien, producer of the new Columbia picture release, "The Finest Hour," coming to the Squaw Valley Theater Saturday and Sunday, May 8 and 9 in color, ran into unexpected difficulty while he was making the picture of Sir Winston Churchill's memoirs of the second world war. He wanted German newsreel film material from the Hitler era.

The problem: a West German government that Le Vien calls "How to forget and influence friends."

"In Nazi Germany," Le Vien said, "the newsreels were filmed by government cameramen. Much of this important footage now belongs to the state. When I tried to buy some, the government film agency told me I would have to pay around $5 a foot instead of the normal price of about $1—and that my limit would be 500 feet."

The agency was candid about the reason for the decision, "We want people to forget about the Nazis."

Scholarship Dinner Adds $900 To Fund

More than $900 was raised at the teachers' scholarship dinner given April 30. The Tahoe Truckee Teachers' Association expressed gratitude to everyone who helped make the affair a success. All the money will be used to help graduates continue their education.

The art department of the high school designed the programs and the advertising posters. The business education department produced the printed material in the programs.

Fifty-nine businesses donated valuable gifts. In addition to those previously listed, the teachers express thanks to the following:

Terry's Beauty Shop, Kings Beach Safeway, Western Auto Supply, Kenny's Shell, Freddie's Mobil, Kings Beach Automotive Center, North Shore Hardware, Nevada Lodge, Crystal Bay Club, Crystal Bay Development, George Bayer Pro Shop, Village Lounge, Orbit Station and Eagle Thrifty Market.

Many Activities On Calendar For OES

Truckee Chapter No. 116, Order of the Eastern Star, spent a busy month working on several projects, under the leadership of Worthy Matron Dorothy Corbin and Worthy Patron John Corbin.

On April 25, along with all California chapters of the O. E. S., they attended church services in a body at the Methodist Church in Kings Beach, and were the guests at a brunch afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Corbin.

Many of the members have helped in the restoration and cleaning work being done on the interior of the Masonic Temple, assisting the Masonic Temple Board, handling a program of painting and repairs.

On Tuesday night, May 11, Mrs. Louise Anderson, deputy grand matron of the 13th district, will make her official visit to the local chapter and all official work will be performed for her inspection. Many out of town guests are expected to be present and a special ceremony has been planned for the evening, followed by refreshments in the banquet hall.

A reception honoring Mrs. Anderson will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 6, and plans are going forward to entertain the large number of Eastern Star guests expected to attend.

ANTON KIELHOFFER IS MARRIED AT CAPITAL

Mr. and Mrs. Anton M. Kielhofer will establish their home in Santa Rosa following their wedding last week at a nuptial mass in the Holy Spirit Catholic Church at Sacramento.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Knight of Sacramento and the young benedict is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Kielhofer of Santa Rosa and formerly of Truckee.

The newly wedded couple graduated from the Bishop Armstrong high school. She attended Sacramento City College and was interested in varied activities in the capital. Kielhofer attended the University of San Francisco.

Careless Campers

Fishermen were coming across the lake in their boats bringing shovels and cans to carry water to help extinguish the flames. On one fire, two women were helping in the fight.

On the other hand, those persons leaving the unattended fires either lacked concern or did not realize that even though stormy weather had stopped only a few days earlier the forest and range fuels could burn readily.

Ranger Mohla said that the wind of the past week has dried out the small, fine fuels, so that they approached the dryness of midsummer.

Fortunately, the light snow of early Sunday morning dampened the grass and brush enough so that there was not a repetition of the Saturday fires.

"If only people would apply the simple rules that are on the back of campfire permits, fires like this wouldn't occur," Mohla commented. "These campfire permits are required for any camp fire within the national forests. This also applies to portable stoves," he added.

TWO THEATERS WILL SHOW WATER FILM

Jacques Cousteau's "World Without Sun" which will be shown at the Squaw Valley Theater Thursday and Friday, May 13 and 14 and at the Tahoe Theater Saturday and Sunday, May 15 and 16, offers theatergoers in this area a real treat.

The picture received one of the biggest magazine breaks ever recorded for any picture when National Geographic, with a readership of more than 10 million, granted its cover and 43 pages of text and pictures to the breath-taking screen adventure.

The under water color production is the second by the famed explorer, Cousteau to be distributed by Columbia. His first, "The Silent World," won both an academy award and the gold palm at the Cannes Film Festival.

Cousteau's first-hand report of the French oceanauts who lived and worked for a month in a submerged colony located on a reef under the surface of the Red Sea, should be a "must see."

Lude Gets High Post

Carl J. Lude, former local high school teacher and advisor for the DeMolay, and more recently assistant director of Lassen Junior College in Susanville, has been appointed dean of students and director of admissions for the new College of Redwoods at Eureka.

New Zealand was the first nation in the world to give women the right to vote.

Doctors Named In Hendrickson Action

Two additional defendants have been named in complaints filed in the Nevada County Superior Court by Dr. E. O. Hendrickson to bring the total of four and a request for $2,300,000 in damages.

The complaints charge Dr. Ben King with making statements to a south Lake Tahoe newspaper, which published a story about Dr. Hendrickson which he claims was false and defamatory. He asks $100,000 in general damages and $50,000 punitive damages from Dr. King.

Dr. Douglas Brodie was named in a similar complaint in which the plaintiff seeks a like amount. It is alleged that Dr. Brodie made statements regarding treatment to a patient by the plaintiff and that the "plaintiff was soaking, gouging and overcharging the patient."

In other complaints, Dr. Hendrickson asks $750,000 general and $250,000 punitive damages from the Tahoe Daily Tribune and the Tahoe Bonanza and their publisher, Chapman Wentworth, charging the articles were "libelous and defamatory."

LITTLE THEATER TO PRESENT CHILD PLAY

Tickets are 50 cents for children under 12 and $1 for adults.

Dave Stollery and Ruth Schneider are directing the play with Marilyn Fugazi supervising the music and Sharon Dwyer in charge of choreography. Marguerite Ashton is organizing the costumes and Mike Grady is designing the sets with Joe Dwyer and Mike Lefleriere prop chairmen.

Included in the cast are Charles Greenwood, Mary Hauserman, Debbie Laferriere, Elaine and Lee Batt, Pamela Bradley, Dixie Marrino, Linda Draney, Lee Ann, Bobbie and Kent Fugazi, Kathy Marco, Mike Nichols, Pat Cohan, Tim Hanna, Steve Chase, Scott Moruza and Bob Edmunds.

Tickets are available from Incline Village PTA, Kings Beach PTA, Tahoe City Boy Scouts or members of the stock company.

GERALD SCHMIDT IS GRADUATE IN ARMY

PORT BELVOIR, Va. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Gerald D. Schmidt, son of Mrs. Imojean Kunges, Tahoe City, Calif., completed a six-week powerman course at the Army Engineer School, Fort Belvoir, Va., April 29.

During the course Schmidt received instruction in the operation and maintenance of hand and power tools, gasoline and diesel engines and electric generators.

He entered the army last December and completed basic training at Fort Polk, La.

The 18-year-old soldier, son of Peter M. Schmidt, 16½ S. Church Street, Lodi, was graduated in 1964 from Tahoe Truckee High School in Truckee.

Before entering the army, Schmidt was employed by Connors Chevrolet station in Tahoe City.

WRESTLING COURSE COMPLETED BY BOY

Philip Roderic Logan, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Logan, successfully completed a course in wrestling given at American Embassy, Moscow, by Marine Corporal Jimmie Shafer. At the conclusion of a wrestling tournament held on April 10, Philip was presented a certificate by Deputy Chief of Mission Walter J. Sotessel, Jr. The tournament and the presentation of the certificates in the embassy community room were viewed by parents and many embassy employees.

Philip's father is a foreign service officer stationed at American Embassy Moscow. Philip has lived in Formosa, Turkey and Lebanon. His permanent home in America is in Squaw Valley where his family has a home.

PHIPPS A PREXY

GIRLS LEAGUE ELECTS

Karen Terry was elected president of the Girls League at Tahoe Truckee High School last Thursday, with Karen McBride as the new vice president and Anne Morey taking the position of secretary treasurer.

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express in a small way my very grateful thank you to each of the staff and personnel of Tahoe Forest Hospital, all my friends and neighbors who remembered me with gifts, cards and encouraging words during my recent illness.

HAZEL BECK

Attend Orchestra—

Mr. and Mrs. O. Giovannoni attended the performance of the Northern California Junior Symphony Orchestra at Sacramento Sunday. Gary Kehm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kehm is a violinist in the organization.

HAWAII STATION

Sgt. M. Z. Smith of the U. S. Marine Corps wrote that his latest address is in Hawaii. He also mentioned that he keeps posted on the Sierra snow country via Sierra Sun and sent greetings to local friends.

Mrs. A. E. Burlingham celebrated her birth date on April 28, receiving the kind wishes for many such pleasant events from her family and friends.

FUNDS ALLOCATED FOR HIGHWAY WORK

The California Highway Commission last week allocated $29,000 for constructing fencing and guard railing and paving gutters on portions of Interstate 80 between Emigrant Gap and two miles easterly.

The freeway at this location is positioned about 60 feet above the Southern Pacific tracks. The fencing and guard railing is required to prevent falling rocks and out of control vehicles from falling onto the tracks.
